Half Your Living Without Money Cost

A right or wrong start in 1915 will make or break most farmers in the Cotton States. We are all facing a crisis on cotton. Cotton credit is upset. The supply merchant cannot advance supplies on 1915 cotton. You must do your best to produce on your own acres the food and grain supplies that have made up most of your store debt in the past.

A good piece of garden ground, rightly planted, rightly tended and kept planted the year round, can be made to pay half your living. It will save you more money than you made on the best five acres of cotton you ever grew! But it must be a real garden, and not the mere one-planting patch in the spring and fall.

Hastings' 1915 Seed Book tells all about the right kind of a money-saving garden and the vegetables to put in it. It tells about the field crops as well and shows you the clear road to real farm prosperity, comfort and independence. IT'S FREE. Send for it today to H. G. HASTINGS & CO., Atlanta, Ga.—Advt.

PRAYER SERVICE.

The subject for prayer service at the M. E. Church, South, Tuesday evening, March 9, is "The resurrection of the body," continued.

Will have no marriage—Matthew xxii 23 to 33, U. A. Potts, leader.

The resurrection of Christ insures that of his followers, Matthew xviii 9-10, Mrs. J. L. Duffot; I. Corinthians xv 19 to 23, A. L. Hassell.

The order of the resurrection; the dead will be received first—I. Thessalonians iv 13 to 16, Rev. O. C. Wrather; living saints will then be caught up—I. Thessalonians iv 17-18, Miss Nelle Odle.

The glory of the resurrection—I. Corinthians xv 51 to 56, J. V. Travis.

Nature of the resurrection body—John xi 23 to 40, L. L. Stem; Mark v 41 to 43, Mrs. G. P. Hicks; Luke xxiv 15-16-30-31, Mrs. J. V. Travis; Luke xxiv 36 to 44, Mrs. J. G. Cantwell; II. Corinthians v 1 to 4, W. P. Redick; Acts 29 to 31, Mrs. A. S. Justice; Romans viii 23 and Philippians iii 11, Tilford Justice; Acts i 2-3, Mrs. Albert L. Hassell.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend and take part in the service.

Respectfully,
FRANK B. JONES, P. C.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Editor Chronicle, Dear Sir—I wish to inform all parties through your paper not to order for or let my boy have whisky or any intoxicants. On the 20th of February, 1915, a gentleman of Camden did order a gallon of peach and honey, of which my boy got one quart. All parties are hereby notified not to order or furnish him whisky or other intoxicants. In doing so I shall take them as enemies of my boy and myself and shall present my troubles to the Grand Jury.

As hustling Americans we must raise colts to replace the thousands of horses and mules that are now being shipped to the war zone of Europe. Only a limited number of mares will be served by Pat Wilkes, who is from a registered Wilkes mare, 16½ hands high, weighs 1400 pounds, well proportioned and is one of the best combination and saddle horses to be found.

Pat Wilkes

Black Slate

Black Slate is a registered Jack, 15 hands high, five years old, black with white points, large bone. The service of this high bred stock is $8.00 for horse or horse mule and $10 for a filly or mare mule, to insure living colt. We give prompt service, and have reduced the fee to meet the conditions of the times which you will appreciate.

The season of 1915 now open at my barn 4 miles south of Big Sandy and 8 miles north of Camden. We will take pleasure in showing you this stock, and feel confident that after you look them over you will give us your patronage.
